Central LHIN Mental Health and Addictions Programs and Funding Update

Crisis Investments

Program Name	Health Service Provider(s)	Program Description	Base Funding
Mobile Crisis Intervention Team (MCIT)	Humber River Hospital; North York General	Police/Mental Health Nurse respond to police dispatch calls for emotionally disturbed persons or persons in crisis.	$576,142
Mental Health Support Team (MHST)	York Support Services Network	Police/Mental Health Worker respond to police dispatch calls for emotionally disturbed persons or persons in crisis.	$2,107,930
Co-Response Unit (CRU)	York Support Services Network	Crisis Worker responds to police or paramedic dispatch calls for emotionally disturbed persons or persons in crisis.
Crisis Lines	York Support Services Network	24/7 telephone crisis service; Crisis Worker provides immediate telephone response for those experiencing a mental health crisis.
Short-Term Crisis Beds	York Support Services Network	For individuals 16 years and over experiencing a crisis; provides a safe and supportive environment to assist in stabilizing crisis events, while also providing access to needed resources.	$372,280
Police Access Safe Beds	Canadian Mental Health Association-Toronto	Designated police access program focusing on individuals who have a mental health and/or addictions issue, who have come into contact with police, and would benefit from a high support residential community environment.	$1,285,495
Short-Term Residential Beds	Cota	Provides a safe and supportive environment for adults living with a serious mental illness who are experiencing a situational crisis resulting in homelessness (also available for Mental Health and Justice population).	$1,162,913

Short-Term Residential Beds	Across Boundaries	For individuals 16 years and over experiencing a crisis; provides a safe and supportive environment to assist in stabilizing crisis events, while also providing access to needed resources.	$70,608
Warm Line and Peer Crisis Support Service	Krasman Centre	Crisis and non-crisis support from a recovery and peer informed perspective. The support phone line is answered by individuals with lived experience with mental health concerns, addictions and/or trauma.	$528,273
Peer Navigator Program	Krasman Centre	Peer support aimed at enhancing client experience during and after emergency department visits at North York General Hospital and Southlake Regional Health Centre; provides non-clinical peer support around system navigation, and crisis planning.	$130,000
Rapid Access Addiction Medicine Clinics (RAAM)	Addiction Services for York Region	Drop-in clinics for individuals looking for support with their problematic substance use; provides assessment, diagnosis, and helps develop an appropriate treatment plan; refers to community services.	$503,000
Addictions Withdrawal Management Clinics	Addiction Services for York Region	Non-medical service (trained professionals) providing assessment, treatment and referrals to clients with mild or moderate symptoms who want to stop their use of alcohol and/or other substances.	$752,503

Updated on December 17, 2018